Seventh Sunday of Easter

In this Sunday's gospel we hear Jesus pray for his people. He prays that the Father will protect them as he protected them when he was with them. But there is more to this prayer. Just as he prays for protection, he prays for the unity of his people. There is yet more. Jesus prays that his people will be "sanctified in the truth."

As the Easter season comes to a close we are commissioned by Jesus' prayer, "As you have sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world." Not alone or unarmed, but with God the protector, unifier, and sanctifier. We do not know what the world has in store for us, but we know the ending, and we know that we are not alone.

Join us at St. Timothy's on Sunday. Let's worship together, offering thanks and praise to God our protector, unifier, and sanctifier.
