

Parish Announcements – May 21, 2017

We pray especially for: Carol, Jackie, Dorothy, Robert, Corbin, Shannon, Ewalda, Janet, Judy, Heather, Elaine, Ed, Sherry, Annette, Billy, Margo, Larry, Chris, Irene, Judy J., Chuck, Grant, Toni, Kevin, Connie, Susan, Bruce, Oliver, Emily and for Brad, Lucas, Annie, Justin, Brian and other service men and women who risk their lives.

We give thanks for those celebrating birthdays this week: Susan Plowman

We give thanks for those celebrating anniversaries this week: Denis and Judi James, Mel and Sharon McKey, Brent and Beth Symington.

Parish Picnic-ers! Today is our Annual Parish Picnic after the Bluegrass Mass. Burgers, Hotdogs, Beans, and Chips and other yummys! Don't miss out on the fun.

May 28th Memorial Day Weekend Services will be Morning Prayer at 8:00 am with Ken Box and 10:30 am with Tony Janeshek. Many thanks to both Ken and Tony for leading us in prayer this day as we worship and as we pause to lift our hearts and minds in prayer those who have laid down their lives in the service of their country.

Informal Faith Formation activities are set up in the Parish Hall throughout Sunday mornings. Intergenerational participation is welcomed and encouraged. Here's what's available:

- 3D puzzle of Westminster Abbey
- Several "table talk" suggestions for conversation
- Children's books with comments related to the Sunday readings

Children, families and individuals are encouraged to go to the Parish Hall when they arrive before worship or following the worship service and spend some time with these activities. Contact Lela Seay (979-549-1289, liseay1.9@gmail.com) for more information.

Please take time to view our ongoing St. Timothy's Visioning Goals in the hallway by our Parish Hall. There are Post-It notes available for us to share the activities and happenings related to our six goals. Just write down what you or your group may be doing which reflects our shared vision for St. Timothy's! Many thanks to Arleen Frank for getting these posters created and up on our walls!!

The Committee on Missional Communities is forming again to re-evaluate and discern possible opportunities within our community. The committee is reviewing the topics discussed at Diocesan Council this year, and look at how they should be applied as St. Timothy's looks to aggressively move forward with a missional mindset.

Library Giveaway! Books! Books! We have too many books! We're giving them away! Free to a good home. You can help us make room in our Library. Look on the table in the hallway between the Library and the Parish Hall throughout May. Find one --or more-- you like? Take it home! For more information contact Donna Box (debox456@gmail.com), Margaret Jones or Lela Seay (liseay1.9@gmail.com, 979-549-1289).

St. Timothy's will welcome Brendan Kimbrough as our new rector on Pentecost, June 4th, 2017. Please make plans to attend (and wear red!) as we celebrate our first Sunday with Fr. Brendan. Giving thanks for a new chapter at St. Timothy's!

EYC (Episcopal Youth Community) is open to all youth in grades 5-12. We meet for fellowship, lessons, food and fun. Contact Stephanie Townes (stephanie.a.townes@gmail.com / 979-236-5478) or Chris Weis (cweis9@hotmail.com / 314-369-1979) for questions or more information.
