

“We grow more and more comfortable in living and sharing our faith. We feel so blessed in the life in Christ at St. Timothy’s.”

—Judi James

“I consider the main gift God has given me besides family is my voice. I am privileged that St. Timothy’s has chosen me over many years to interpret and read the Scriptures in concert with so many other faithful readers.”

—Denis James

“When I travel through a small town, the churches catch my eye. The building and its upkeep is a silent outreach. I enjoy participating in the ARM (Army of Retired Men – women are welcome!) and being part of a church that values the upkeep of our facility as an important and inviting aspect to our community.”
